

RECOGNITION OF ATTORNEYS
OFFERING PRO BONO SERVICES IN THE
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT

January 1, 2015 through December 31, 2015

During the last calendar year, debtors received pro bono representation in two hundred thirty-one (231) bankruptcy cases. Sixty-five (65) lawyers appeared in one or more of our three divisions of the court while representing these debtors. Several attorneys provided pro bono representation to ten (10) or more debtors, including: Michael Toomey (17), Gregory Germain (11), Lindy M. Madill (11), R Thomas Miller (10), and Marc Ehrlich (13). Attorney Michael Jude O'Connor provided pro bono services to debtors in twenty (20) cases. In addition, Ira B. Lobel and Paul A. Levine served as mediators in cases. Steven Dolson was appointed and served pro bono as a special mentor to an attorney in a case.

The following list comprises the Honor Roll of Pro Bono Attorneys who have represented pro bono at least one debtor, served as a mediator without compensation or volunteered time for the Legal Project or another bankruptcy clinic. Chief Judge Margaret Cangilos-Ruiz, Judge Robert E. Littlefield and Judge Diane Davis extend a special thank you to these dedicated professionals who serve the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of New York and their community in such an important capacity.

Kim F. Lefebvre, Clerk of Court
