Honor Roll of Attorneys Providing Pro Bono Services

April 1, 2016 to June 30, 2016

Chief Judge Margaret Cangilos-Ruiz, Judge Robert E. Littlefield and Judge Diane Davis acknowledge and thank the attorneys listed below for their continuing commitment to unrepresented parties in the bankruptcy court. Their pro bono representation of these individuals provides a valuable public service to the community.

During the three months noted, twenty-seven (27) attorneys rendered pro bono services in forty-eight (48) cases. Four attorneys performed pro bono services in three or more cases, namely: M. Lettie Dickerson (6); Marc S. Ehrlich (4); Susan N. Esce (3); and Michael Jude O'Connor (8). Attorneys Marc S. Ehrlich and Elizabeth Fairbanks Fletcher each performed pro bono as a mediator in one case.

The listed attorneys filed at least one pro bono petition, represented a pro se party for a particular matter in a case, served as a mediator or volunteered time for The Legal Project or another sponsored bankruptcy clinic.
