Dear Pro Se Litigant:

You recently requested forms and/or information about filing a bankruptcy petition without an attorney. Please note that the bankruptcy court clerk staff cannot provide all the necessary forms or legal advice.

Forms and related legal information can be obtained from a legal supply store and on the internet. You can link to forms, local rules and legal information from our web site: www.nynb.uscourts.gov. The United States Trustee web site may also contain necessary or useful information: www.usdoj.gov/ust/index.htm.

There were many changes to the Bankruptcy Code effective October 17, 2005 and thereafter. In addition, the Bankruptcy Rules and Forms continue to be modified to conform to changes in the law. Please ensure you have access to the most recent legal information and forms. We have enclosed certain forms and basic information that may be helpful to you. Official Bankruptcy Forms must be used to file and take action in bankruptcy cases. Procedural Forms also may be necessary for use during the course of some bankruptcy proceedings. Additional filing instructions, along with the forms, are available in the Bankruptcy Forms Manual. The official forms and the Forms Manual can be found at www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/index.html.

Sincerely,

Bankruptcy Court Clerk

Missing Forms and Deficiency Notices

As a part of its Quality Control (QC) procedure, the Clerk's Office will check each petition filed for completion and signature. Generally, if an old petition form is used or a signature is missing where it is required, you will be asked to submit an amended and corrected form.

If documents required to be filed are missing, the Clerk's Office will not generate a separate Notice of Deficiency for missing documents. Telephonic reminders of approaching deadlines for missing documents will not be given. The deadline for submitting the missing documents will be set in the Clerk's Office and an appropriate docket entry made. A notice regarding missing documents will be sent to the debtor, the debtor's attorney and the United States trustee.

Please carefully review the documents you file with the Court and check the docket for document deadlines. Do not rely on the Clerk's Office to alert you regarding deficient case filings. The ultimate responsibility for preparing, submitting, and monitoring a complete filing rests with the debtor or debtor's attorney.

Automatic Dismissals Pursuant to 11 USC § 521 (i)(1)

CM/ECF is now configured to automatically calculate a day 46 deadline for documents to be filed pursuant to 11 USC. § 521 (a)(1). Clerk's Office staff will set document deadline dates in CM/ECF. Please be advised, however, that the Clerk's Office will not send you notification if your case is scheduled for automatic dismissal. Please check the docket often to monitor deadlines on your cases.

Attorney's Responsibility to Update E-Mail Addresses

On a daily basis the Automation Department gets e-mail returned to it for a number of reasons. When the Clerk's Office investigates these returns, one of three common occurrences has taken place. Most commonly an attorney, paralegal or support staff member has left a firm and has not informed the Clerk's Office. Or an attorney has changed either their e-mail address or their ISP and has not informed the Clerk's Office. We also have many instances of over filled mailboxes that then refuse new e-mails.

Please practice due diligence with your e-mail addresses. If you allow an incorrect e-mail address to remain in the ECF database you will not receive Notices of Electronic Filing for your cases and you will not receive other e-mail notices sent by the Court.

Revised Voluntary Petition Form (Official Form 1)

The Voluntary Petition Form has been amended to implement recent amendments to the Bankruptcy Code. Several key changes to the form include:

- Requirement to provide all names used and information about prior bankruptcy cases for an eight year period instead of six;
- Chapter 15 Petition has been added to chapters under which petition can be filed and Section 304 was repealed;
- A new section titled "Nature of Business" has been added;
- The Filing Fee section has been amended to add a filing fee waiver request;
- The section of the form previously labeled "Chapter 11 Small Business" has been revised and renamed "Chapter 11 Debtors" with an additional check box to identify debtors whose aggregate non-contingent debts owed to non-insiders or affiliates are less than $2 million;
- A check off box entitled "Exhibit D" has been added. Please Note: An Exhibit D must be filed for each individual debtor, and, depending on the box checked in the exhibit, a certificate (with a certificate number) must also be filed with the petition;
- A section added for Statement by a Debtor Who Resides as a Tenant of Residential Property.

Means Test Requirements (Official Form B22A or B22B or B22C)

All individual debtors are required to comply with the means test requirements of BAPCPA. Individual debtors include individual chapter 7 consumer debtors, each individual debtor in a joint case, individual chapter 11 debtors and all chapter 13 debtors. Instructions for completing the means test form are contained within the form.

The B22A form for chapter 7 individual debtors includes a checkbox , to be completed by the debtor or debtor's attorney, which indicates whether or not there is a presumption of abuse. The Clerk's Office will not review the calculations in the form for accuracy or completeness.

During the electronic filing of a chapter 7 case, the user will be presented with the question:
"Presumption of Abuse? yes/no/unknown"

Your selection at this screen should match the box checked at the top of the B22A. You should only select "unknown" when the B22A is not being submitted at the time of filing.

Updated information, instructions and figures are available on the United States Trustee Website: <http://www.usdoj.gov/ust/eo/bapcpa/>

Waiver of Chapter 7 Filing Fees for Individuals (Official Form B3B)

The fee for filing a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code is $299.00. Individuals who cannot pay the filing fee in full or who cannot afford to pay the filing fee in installments may request a waiver of the filing fee by completing Form B3B and filing it with the Clerk's Office.

A judge will determine whether the fee must be paid. The fee may be waived only if the individual has an income less than 150 percent of the official poverty line applicable to his/her family size and the individual cannot pay in installments. If you are submitting an application to waive filing fees be sure to complete the form and attach requested schedules.

Tax Information

Copies of tax returns or other tax information are not required to be filed with each petition.

If you are ordered to file tax information with the Court please redact the debtor's personal information as follows:

- Social Security numbers. If an individual's social security number is included, only the last four digits of that number should appear;
- Names of minor children. If a minor child(ren) is/are identified by name, only the child(ren)'s initials should appear;
- Dates of birth. If an individual's date of birth is included, only the year should appear; and
- Financial account numbers. If financial account numbers are provided, only the last four digits of these numbers should appear.

Court employees are not responsible for redacting any of the personal identifying information. The responsibility for redacting personal identifiers rests solely with the debtor or debtor's attorney.

Tax information is not public information. Tax information filed with the bankruptcy court will not be viewable or available to the public via the Internet, PACER or CM/ECF. When filing tax information in CM/ECF please select Bankruptcy > Other > Tax Documents. With the exception of court employees and judicial officers, users of PACER or CM/ECF will be unable to open and view the tax information.

Pay Advices

One of the debtor's duties under 11 U.S.C. § 521(a)(1) may include the requirement to file copies of payment advices or other evidence of payment with the petition. When filing payment advices please redact the debtor's personal information. The Clerk's Office is not responsible for redacting any personal identifying information. The Northern District of New York has an optional form you may use when the debtor does not have payment advices. Please visit our website and click on the "Forms" button for access.

Difference Between Credit Counseling Requirement and Financial Management Course Requirement

- Credit Counseling is required to take place prior to the filing of the petition. A list of approved credit counselors can be found at www.usdoj.gov/ust or at the Clerk's Office public counter. The Credit Counseling box must be checked on the petition and a credit counseling certificate must be submitted with the petition. Do not use the Financial Management form (Official Form 23) for this purpose.
- An Instructional Course Concerning Personal Financial Management is required and must be completed as a condition for receiving a discharge. The course must be completed after the filing of the petition. The chapter 7 debtor is required to file a certification of completion (Official Form 23) within 45 days after the first date set for the 341 meeting. A chapter 13 debtor must file certification of completion by no later than the time of the last plan payment or the filing of a motion for hardship discharge.

New Electronic Document Filing Selections in CM/ECF

On October 17th, the CM/ECF document filing system was upgraded to version 2.7, thereby making it compatible with the requirements of the reform legislation. This has resulted in the addition of several new menu selections (all of which can be found under the "Bankruptcy" sub-menu "Other"). Most notable are the following:

- Certificate of Credit Counseling (pre-petition)
- Debtor Repayment Plan
- Exigent Circumstances re: Credit Counseling
- Payment Advice Statements

(The documents above should be filed separately and not within the petition pdf.)

- Chapter 7 Means Test (B22A)
- Chapter 11 Statement of Current Monthly Income (B22B)
- Chapter 13 Statement of Current Monthly and Disposable Income (B22C)

(These document can and should be contained within the petition pdf. The menu selections above are intended for use in submitting the B22 form after the initial case filing.)

- Certificate of Financial Management Course (Official Form 23) (post petition)
- Tax Documents (Tax documents filed using this selection cannot be viewed via PACER.)

Creditor's Preferred Address and National Creditor Registration Service

Under BAPCPA creditors have two options to specify addresses for notices. Use of a preferred address is not mandatory. The two options for preferred address are as follows:

- 11 U.S.C. § 342(e) provides that a creditor may file with the court and serve on the debtor a notice of the address that must thereafter be used to give notice to the creditor in that specific case. The court and debtor must use that address beginning five days after they receive the creditor's notice.
- 11 U.S.C. § 342(f) permits a creditor to file a notice with any bankruptcy court setting out the address or addresses to which notices must be sent to the creditor by all bankruptcy courts or by particular bankruptcy courts. This address notice becomes effective 30 days after it is filed. The notice in a specific case under subsection (e) supercedes the more global address notice that might be filed under (f).

The National Creditor Registration Service is a free service provided by the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts through the Bankruptcy Noticing Center. The service gives creditors options to specify a preferred U.S. mail address, e-mail address, or fax number to which bankruptcy notices should be sent. Creditors can specify a preferred mailing address to be used by all the bankruptcy courts or by particular bankruptcy courts for providing notices.

For additional information on the registration of preferred addresses please go the website for the National Creditor Registration Service. The URL is www.ncrsuscourts.com.

Forms Manual Available On-Line

Official Bankruptcy Forms must be used to file and take action in bankruptcy cases. Procedural Forms also may be necessary for use during the course of some bankruptcy proceedings. Additional filing instructions, along with the forms, are available in the Bankruptcy Forms Manual. The official forms and the Forms Manual can be found at www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/index.html

Local Forms Available

Several local forms are available on the Court's website which is www.nynb.uscourts.gov. The available local forms are:

- Payment Advice Form
 - Request to Court for Determination of Exemption to File Credit Counseling Certificate
 - Request for Extension to File Credit Counseling Certificate (upd. 06/07/06)
 - Adjournment Request/Withdrawal/Settlement Notification for Motion Calendar Related Matters
 - Adjournment Request/Withdrawal/Settlement Notification for Trials/Evidentiary Hearings
 - Certification of Mailing Matrix
 - Summary of Attachment(s) and Certificate of Service

Reaffirmation Agreements

Please be advised that the requirements for reaffirmation agreements have changed. 11 U.S.C. 524(k) defines several specific disclosures that must be made to the debtor on or before the time that the debtor sign the agreement. As a result, the reaffirmation agreement form has changed (see Official Form B240) and now consists of:

- (Part A) Disclosure Statement
- (Part B) Reaffirmation Agreement
- (Part C) Certification by the Debtor's Attorney
- (Part D) Debtor's Statement in Support of the Reaffirmation Agreement (which shall show the income/expense figures from schedule I and J).
- (Part E) Motion for Court Approval (which is to be completed only if the debtor is not represented by an attorney).

Additionally, Interim Rule 4004(c)(1)(J) states that the court shall not grant the discharge if a presumption of hardship has arisen. According to subsection 524(m)(1), undue hardship is presumed if the debtor's monthly income minus expenses is less than the scheduled payment. This presumption must be reviewed by the court and hardship is presumed until 60 days after the agreement is filed with the court. (The presumption may be rebutted in writing by the debtor within the statement in support of the reaffirmation. If the presumption is not rebutted (to the satisfaction of the court), the court may disapprove the agreement after notice and hearing which shall be concluded before the entry of the discharge. (This subsection does not apply to a reaffirmation agreement where the creditor is a credit union.)

CM/ECF Version 3.1 and Requirements to Collect Additional Statistics

The new bankruptcy law and the Judicial Conference mandated additional reporting requirements that must be complied with by October 17, 2006. The Clerk's Office will require the completion and filing of the Summary of Schedules [Form 6 - Summary, (10/05)] and the Statistical Summary of Certain Liabilities [Form 6- Summ2, (10/05)] for individual debtors. Version 3.1 of CM/ECF will be implemented by October 17, 2006 to meet the reporting requirements.

LIST OF TYPICAL FORMS REQUIRED FOR FILING A BANKRUPTCY PETITION

On October 17, 2005 new bankruptcy law went effect. In addition there has been a change in filing fees. The information compiled here is not intended to provide legal advice on the new law. It is intended as a guideline to assist you in preparing a complete bankruptcy petition filing. Every form that you may encounter or that may be required is not listed. Due to the complexities of bankruptcy law you are strongly urged to seek advice from a licensed attorney.

Forms and the new fee schedule can be obtained from the Court's website which is www.nynb.uscourts.gov.

- Appropriate Filing Fee or Application to Pay Filing Fee in Installments (Form 3A) or Application for Waiver of Chapter 7 Filing Fees (Form 3B) for those who are eligible
- Official Form 1 (Form B1) Voluntary Petition and Exhibit D for each debtor
- Mailing Matrix of Creditors in addition to completed schedules

- Summary of Schedules & Statistical Summary of Certain Liabilities (Form 6)
- Statement of Financial Affairs (Official Form 7)

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER §342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $39 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total fee $299)

1. Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a “means test” designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

2. Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

3. The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

4. Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $39 administrative fee: Total fee $274)

1. Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

2. Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

3. After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1000 filing fee, $39 administrative fee: Total fee $1039)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $39 administrative fee: Total fee $239)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

Re: Debtor Identification Program

All debtors are required to provide picture identification and proof of social security number at the § 341 meeting.

- Acceptable types of picture identification may include the following original documents: (1) drivers license, (2) government ID, (3) state picture ID, (4) student ID, (5) Passport (and current U.S. Visa, if not a U.S. Citizen, (6) military ID, and (7) resident alien card.
- Acceptable forms of proof of social security number may include the following original documents: (1) social security card, (2) medical insurance card (3) pay stub (4) W-2 form, (5) IRS Form 1099, and (6) Social Security Administration (SSA) report.
- Consequences for failure to have required documents: If a debtor does not have acceptable documentation, the 341 meeting will be continued to the trustee's next date. Failure to produce the documents may result in a motion to dismiss the case, a motion to compel or other appropriate remedy.
- Goal is to protect innocent third parties from intentional and inadvertent use of SSN: Bankruptcy filings are primarily reported to credit agencies by social security number. The cost and hardship to correct an adverse credit history can be substantial. With your assistance, we should be able to limit the impact on innocent parties when a case has been filed with an incorrect social security number.

RULE 1007-2: MAILING - LIST OR MATRIX

- (a) Matrix. Any list of creditors, schedule of liabilities or list of equity security holders required to be filed pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007 shall be accompanied by a matrix containing the name and address of all creditors and other parties in interest. Each such matrix shall be submitted in proper form compatible with the court's automated case management system (CM/ECF). The two letter state identifier as prescribed by the United States Post Office shall be used with no periods included. Zip codes MUST appear on the same line as the city/state.
- (b) Reliance Upon the Matrix. The clerk may rely upon the matrix as filed, and any amendments thereto, for purposes of providing notice as required by these Local Bankruptcy Rules and the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.
- (c) Matrix Format. The matrix must be formatted and addressed as follows. Adherence to this format will greatly reduce the number of noticing errors. Each creditor entry must consist of no more than five total lines.
- Complete address, clearly typed
 - Left justified in a single column down the left edge of the paper
 - Each creditor's address must be single spaced
 - Creditor's city, state and zip code must all appear together on the final line of each creditor's address
 - Do not include account numbers in any part of the address
 - Single space required between each address
 - State must appear in a two letter, capitalized format
 - Each line must contain no more than 40 characters including spaces and punctuation.
- (d) Examples of Proper Format for Matrix

- (e) Matrix of Twenty Largest Unsecured Creditors. The list of the twenty largest unsecured creditors filed pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(d) shall be accompanied by a separate matrix, in proper form, as set forth in subsection (a) above, listing only those unsecured creditors.
- (f) Certification of Matrix. Whenever a matrix is required to be submitted pursuant to subsections (a) or (e) of this rule, subsection (b) of Local Bankruptcy Rule 1003-1, subsection (d) of Local Bankruptcy Rule 1009-1, subsection (c) of Local Bankruptcy Rule 1015-1, subsection (d) of Local Bankruptcy Rule 1019-1 or as otherwise required by the court, the proponent or attorney for the proponent must certify that the matrix contains the names, addresses and zip codes of all creditors and entities which appear in the schedules of liabilities, list of creditors, list of equity security holders, list of twenty largest unsecured creditors or amendments thereto. The certification shall conform substantively to the following:

CERTIFICATION OF MAILING MATRIX

I (we), _____, the attorney for the debtor/petitioner (or, if appropriate, the debtor(s) or petitioners(s)) hereby certify under the penalties of perjury that the above/attached mailing matrix has been compared to and contains the names, addresses and zip codes of all persons and entities, as they appear on the schedules of liabilities/list of creditors/list of equity security holders, or any amendment thereto filed herewith.

Dated: _____

Attorney for Debtor/Petitioner
(Debtor(s)/Petitioner(s))

- (g) Noncompliance. The failure to comply with the requirements of this rule may subject the case to dismissal.

Comment

This rule requires that matrices be compatible with the court's automated case management system. The creditor matrix is to be prepared with word processing software or bankruptcy preparation software, in a single column format with a one inch left margin (not centered). Creditors are single spaced with a double space separating one creditor from the next. The city, state and zip code must all be on the last line. The creditor matrix file is saved as an ASCII Text (.txt) file and uploaded to the System per the User Manual.

Refer to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9034 - 1 (c) for the addresses of the United States trustee.

Although Fed. R. Bankr. P. 5005(a)(1) requires the clerk to accept papers for filing which are not in proper form, subsection (g) of this local rule makes clear that the court may take appropriate action to enforce this rule.

APPLICATION FOR WAIVER OF THE CHAPTER 7 FILING FEE
FOR INDIVIDUALS WHO CANNOT PAY THE FILING FEE
IN FULL OR IN INSTALLMENTS

The court fee for filing a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code is $299.

If you cannot afford to pay the full fee at the time of filing, you may apply to pay the fee in installments. A form, which is available from the bankruptcy clerk's office, must be completed to make that application. If your application to pay in installments is approved, you will be permitted to file your petition, generally completing payment of the fee over the course of four to six months.

If you cannot afford to pay the fee either in full at the time of filing or in installments, you may request a waiver of the filing fee by completing this application and filing it with the Clerk of Court. A judge will decide whether you have to pay the fee. By law, the judge may waive the fee only if your income is less than 150 percent of the official poverty line applicable to your family size and you are unable to pay the fee in installments. You may obtain information about the poverty guidelines at www.uscourts.gov or in the bankruptcy clerk's office.

Required information. Complete all items in the application, and attach requested schedules. Then sign the application on the last page. If you and your spouse are filing a joint bankruptcy petition, you both must provide information as requested and sign the application.
