

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

IN RE:

DELEGATION OF DUTIES TO CLERK OF COURT

ORDER

This Court having entered an Order dated June 3, 1994, delegating to Richard G. Zeh, Jr., the duly appointed Clerk of this Court, the authority to sign all ministerial orders and matters without further direction of the Court, and said Order having itemized in paragraphs 1 through 13 thereof specific orders which said Clerk was authorized to sign, and the primary motivation for said Order having been the absence of a sitting bankruptcy judge in the Albany division of this Court, and that motivation having been mooted by the appointment of the Honorable Robert E. Littlefield, Jr., now, therefore, it is ORDERED that the Order of this Court dated June 3, 1994, delegating authority to Richard G. Zeh, Jr., as Clerk of the Court, to sign certain orders as itemized in paragraphs 1 through 13 thereof, be and hereby is vacated and revoked, effective immediately, and, it is further ORDERED that nothing herein is intended to prohibit the entry of a further order by an individual Judge of this Court delegating similar authority to said Clerk as to proposed orders presented to that specific judge.

Dated at Utica, New York

this 5th day of August 2002

STEPHEN D. GERLING
Chief U.S. Bankruptcy Judge
