In Re:

Application for Exemption from
Electronic Public Access Fees by
Katherine Waldock

Administrative Order
No. 14-03

This matter is before the Court upon the letter request dated April 29, 2014 by Ms. Katherine Waldock, a Doctoral Candidate in Finance (“Ms. Waldock”) for exemption from the fees imposed by the Electronic Public Access fee schedule adopted by the Judicial Conference of the United States Courts.

THEREFORE the Court finds that Ms. Waldock, as an individual researcher associated with New York University Stern School of Business in New York, New York, falls within the class of users listed in the fee schedule as being eligible for a fee exemption. Additionally, Ms. Waldock has demonstrated that an exemption is necessary in order to avoid unreasonable burdens and to promote public access to information.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Ms. Waldock shall be exempt from the payment of fees for access via PACER to the electronic case files maintained in this Court, to the extent such use is incurred in the course of research regarding the role of distressed debt investors in chapter 11 reorganizations and the impact of investor strategies on firm policies, plant productivity and corporate performance; and it is

FURTHER ORDERED Ms. Waldock shall not be exempt from the payment of fees incurred in connection with other uses of the PACER system in this Court; and it is

FURTHER ORDERED that the following limitations apply: (1) this fee exemption applies only to Ms. Waldock and is valid only for the purpose stated above; (2) this fee exemption applies only to the electronic case files of this Court that are available through the PACER system; (3) Ms. Waldock shall not sell for profit any data obtained as a result of receiving this exemption; (4) Ms. Waldock is and shall be prohibited from transferring any data obtained as a result of receiving this exemption; (5) this exemption is valid until May 31, 2015; (6) if necessary, Ms. Waldock may request an extension of the fee exemption granted in this Order, based upon an additional showing of need conforming to Judicial Conference Policy; and it is FURTHER ORDERED this exemption may be revoked at the discretion of the Court at any time and a copy of this Order shall be sent to the PACER Service Center.
